

Boise FSDO presents:

Midair in the Backcountry

Amy Hoover will present her personal experience surviving a midair collision and emergency off-airport landing in a remote area near the Franck Church Wilderness in Idaho. Using photos, videos, GPS and radar data from FAA and NTSB investigations, her discussion includes how preparation, training, mental attitude, and luck factored into her survival and rescue, as well as things learned in the aftermath of the accident and forced landing.

Other presentations (no WINGS credit):

9:00-9:15 - Meet "Nugget" the Screech Owl from Snowdon Wildlife Refuge

9:20-10:45 - Flight Physics: A Live Demonstration of Airplane Control with Master Instructor Rich Stowell

11:00-12:15 - Living & Working on the International Space Station with retired NASA astronaut Steve Swanson from Boise State University

Directions: Manchester Hangar ("A" Hangar), West of McCall Aviation
